

2018-2019 AP Readiness

All District high school students enrolled in an Advanced Placement course (STEM and/or Humanities) are invited to participate in AP Readiness at UCLA. AP Readiness provides rigorous, supplemental instructional support to Advanced Placement (AP) students in STEM and Humanities courses. AP Readiness also provides course-specific professional learning for AP teachers.

AP Readiness Sessions

STEM Strand

Biology
Chemistry
Environmental Science
Physics
Calculus
Statistics
Computer Science

Humanities Strand

English Language
English Literature
Psychology
Spanish Language
Spanish Literature
U.S. History
U.S. Government
World History

STEM Dates

September 15, 2018
October 6, 2018
October 20, 2018
December 1, 2018
January 26, 2019
February 23, 2019
March 9, 2019
April 6, 2019

Humanities Dates

September 22, 2018
October 13, 2018
November 3, 2018
December 1, 2018
January 12, 2019
February 2, 2019
March 2, 2019
March 23, 2019

Who Should Attend?

- High school students enrolled in an AP STEM and/or AP Humanities course
- High school teachers teaching an AP STEM and/or AP Humanities course

Other benefits:

- Certificates are awarded to students who attend four or more sessions.
- A stipend is provided for each AP Readiness session a teacher attends with their students.

Location: UCLA
Los Angeles, CA 90045

To register or for more information visit: <http://www.uclaapr.org>

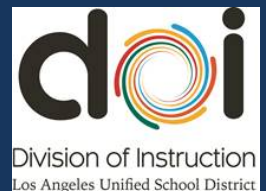

TRANSFORMING PUBLIC SCHOOLS
UCLA CENTER X

For additional information, contact:

James Keipp at keipp@gseis.ucla.edu
UCLA Center X: (310) 825-1324

Michael Lovelady at michael.lovelady@lausd.net
Advanced Learning Options: (213) 241-7516

Division of Instruction
Los Angeles Unified School District