Summary

New LA Middle School is seeking a high energy, well-organized English Language Arts (ELA) Intervention teacher who has proven success improving the outcomes of students who have consistently achieved below grade level.

Responsibilities

- Create and execute highly rigorous ELA intervention programs guiding students to mastery of the Common Core Content Standards for reading, writing, language at grade level;
- Collaborate well with humanities teachers, grade level teams, resource teachers, and leadership;
- Provide a caring and supportive learning environment for students;
- Provide targeted instruction to small groups of students in pull-out and occasional push-in setting;
- Use data to inform practice: analyze formal and informal student assessment results, and use this information to drive and inform instruction;
- Serve as a student advisor: includes following the advisory curriculum, monitoring social, emotional, and academic progress, and acting as first contact for parents;
- Supervise students during non-instructional times;
- Participate in social justice and community engagement activities;
- Participate in outdoor education programming, including multiple-day and overnight camping trips;
- Work as a team player to prepare students for success in high school, college and the world beyond;
- Value and draw upon students' experiences and backgrounds;
- Serve as a positive role model.

Qualifications

In order to be considered for this position at New LA, candidates must:

- Possess a California credential (or be enrolled in a university program): single subject in English, or multiple subject with subject authorization in English or a Sub credential;
- Have experience at elementary and/or middle level and enjoy working with middle school students;
- Demonstrate classroom excellence including including proven intervention expertise, differentiated instruction and student-centered methodologies;
- Be committed to the mission and values of New LA and able to articulate commitment to the mission;
- Demonstrate commitment to social justice;
- Be flexible and be a team player;
- Go the extra mile in order to meet the educational needs of our students, assisting before and after school and through email and website;
- Have a positive outlook, enjoy collaborating with colleagues and appreciate different points of view.

Compensation
